THE SOUND OF MUSIC is presented through special arrangement with R & H Theatricals
Director’s Notes

For me, community theatre is a place where I can temporarily retreat from daily life into a world that is distinctly “other.” Here we create - and for a time live in - an alternate reality. How fortunate we are to be in that “other” place where life is enchanting, obstacles seem impossible, and life is both heartbreaking and heroic.

As the director, the greatest challenge with The Sound of Music is to present the beloved musical in a way that is honest to the script and yet finds new elements in the story to keep it fresh. One such element we added is the song “Something Good” which was not in the original stage play, but was added in the movie. This song is one of the new elements that I personally love. The placement of the songs “The Lonely Goatherd” and “Favorite Things” were switched for more dramatic impact and because it also creates an extra element of fun. We chose to shorten some reprises to shorten the show. They von Trapp house was made as an exterior set which provides more levels to play upon and allows faster (and fewer) scene changes. I would go on but I don’t want spoil anything else for you.

Tonight, please join the Actorsingers as we shift to pre-World War II Austria to meet Maria, the von Trapp family, all of the Nuns and the Nazis that become the The Sound of Music. If you find that you fall in love with the von Trapp children, Georg, Maria, and the wonderful music in this show – please look around you. I expect you will be among friends.

Joe L. Vago, Director
Dedicated to the memory of Vivian J. Vago

The Sound of Music

The Sound of Music is one of the great American theatrical productions. Sadly it was the final musical written by Rodgers and Hammerstein; Hammerstein died of cancer nine months after the Broadway premiere. The original Broadway production, starring Mary Martin and Theodore Bikel, opened on November 16, 1959. It was adapted as a 1965 film musical starring Julie Andrews and Christopher Plummer, which won five Academy Awards. The musical is based on the memoir of Maria von Trapp, The Story of the Trapp Family Singers.

Maria von Trapp died of heart failure on 28 March 1987, in Morrisville, Vermont. She outlived her husband Georg by forty years, he having died before the book, musical, and films appeared. Maria, her husband Georg, Hedwig von Trapp, and Martina von Trapp are interred in the family cemetery at the Von Trapp Lodge in Stowe, Vermont.

Mel Bucklin (Party Guest/Nazi) is thrilled to be acting in his first main stage production with Actorsingers. Mel has recently been seen in the Actorsingers’ production of Last Tuesday at the 40th Annual Festival of Community Theatre, which was great fun! Other credits include: Sheriff Deon Gilbeau in The Milford Area Players production of August: Osage County. He hopes that you enjoy the show!

Tina Cassidy (Nun/Party Guest) is thrilled to be singing with the fabulous nuns choir. A local dance instructor, Tina has performed and choreographed for a number of Actorsingers shows including the recent Guys and Dolls. Bailie has been involved in over 30 shows including Teen Actorsingers’ Swing and Peacock Players’ Almost Maine (Glory & Hope), The Wedding Singer, & Seussical (Bird Girl). Enjoy the Show!!

Sarah Desaulniers (Nun/Party Guest) This is Sarah’s first production with Actorsingers, but she’s been involved with theater for almost 20 years - although she’s usually dressed in black BEHIND the scenes. She wants to thank her husband for all his support.
Erik Duchesne (Capt von Trapp) recently moved back to Nashua after living in NY and PA for four years. Erik grew up in Hollis and performed a great deal with Peacock Players and the Seacoast Repertory Theatre. A Registered Nurse by day, Cindy is the proud Mom to Katrina and wife of 19 years to Jon with whom she is blessed to share the stage. Jon Fisher (Franz) This is Jon’s 3rd time in SOM having been a Nazi in AS 1997 w/ wife Cindy (their 1st show) and as Capt. von Trapp with Peacock Players in 2005. A senior at Nashua North, she plans to major in Music Education in the fall. Thanks to my parents and Mark; enjoy the show!

Bob Frasca (Max Detweiler) Bob’s first show with Actorsingers was the 1997 production of The Sound of Music. He has been in many shows including School House Rock Jr., Pirates of Penzance, and Beauty and the Beast. He was Teyye in Fiddler on the Roof, Oliver in Oliver!, and Sebastian in The Little Mermaid. Ben LOVES music, math, dancing, his family, and Ms. Bevin, his voice teacher. Ben wishes to thank his family for their support! xo

Carol Gorelick (Sister Sophia) is a third grade teacher & mother of 6! She’s been in theatre since she was a little whippersnapper, recently in Oliver! and Seussical the Musical. She credits her mom and dad with encouraging her, and her family for supporting her, especially her wonderful husband Don.

Adam Harding (Party Guest/Nazi) is ready to waltz and salute energetically immediately following his brilliant performance as Mark in A Chorus Line with StageCoach Productions. This is Adam’s 5th Actorsingers’ performance. Pay close attention and you may spot him in the party scene at the von Trapp mansion wearing his trademark baseball cap.

Pam Jordan (Nun/Party Guest) Pam’s first theater experience was playing Gretel in a Cleveland-area production of The Sound of Music in 1973. Since then, she has performed in several choirs and folk groups across North America. After resigning her position as a history professor in Saskatoon, Canada, Pam relocated to the U.S. in July. She looks forward to participating in Nashua’s dynamic arts community.

She has been in several musicals including Anne of Green Gables and Little Princess, both with Junior Actorsingers. She hopes that you enjoy the show and wishes everyone in the cast, “break a leg!”

Phil Laks (Party Guest/Nazi) is not quite sure how he ended up in this production, but thinks it happened shortly after he drank some very strange-tasting coffee at work. However it transpired, he is happy to be here and plans to slily coerce additional co-workers on stage next time.

Mark Lawrence (Party Guest/Nazi #1) is proud to be performing with Actorsingers once again. Past company credits include Seussical (Wickersham) and Swing! (Dancer). Other credits include Cats (Munkustrap), Fame (Schlomo), and Chicago (Billy Flynn). He would like to thank Martha, Jed, and Joe, as well as his family and long-time friends Katrina and Baille for their love and support.

Jim Maloney (Party Guest/Nazi) has been appearing in Actorsingers’ shows since 2002. His most recent appearance was as Harry the Horse in Guys and Dolls. Cayden M. Plummer (Kurt von Trapp) is an 8-year-old in third grade at RMMS in Brookline, NH. He has played Young Don Lockwood in Singin’ in the Rain, one of the King’s children in The King and I, and King Triton in The Little Mermaid. He loves to play golf, soccer, and baseball. He loves beat-boxing rhythms and his favorite subjects are science and math. He would like to thank his family for being his biggest fans!!!

Sarah Reese Souter (Maria Rainer) This is Sarah’s first show with Actorsingers and first time having the opportunity to play Maria - a role she has always loved! Other favorites: Anna in The King and I, Elsie in Yeomen of the Guard, Amy in Company, & many others. After years of bartending at Surf in Nashua, Sarah now works for MassMutual. Her daughters Megan and Holly can’t wait to see the show! For Mom and Dad...

Joe Reilly (Admiral von Schreiber) This is Joe’s 12th Actorsingers’ production, having worked building sets and on spotlight. He is happy to step out on stage in his first speaking role (Not Singing! Most Definitely Not Singing!). Being on stage with his loving partner Gail is truly a dream come true! Joe’s favorite things are music, laughter, and time watching the grandchildren grow! Love You, my Gailie; 10 years Nov.14th!!!

Nicole Ste. Croix (Baroness Elberfeld/Nun) is thrilled to be in her first production with Actorsingers. A huge thank you to Bella, Joey, Rora, and Jack, who make her biggest ‘role’ as Mom so wonderful and worthwhile! Heartfelt thanks and love to her mother, father, and sister for watching them while she was at rehearsals and for being so very supportive! Congrats to cast and crew on a job well done!

Gregg Stephens (Party Guest/Nazi) is making his second appearance with Actorsingers having played a Gambler in the spring production of Guys and Dolls. He is thankful for the support of family and friends in this new endeavor and he is particularly grateful for the love and encouragement from his wife and son.
Cheryl Stocks (Nun/Festival Contestant) is delighted to be returning to the Actorsingers’ main stage after several years of doing primarily NHCTA Festival work and singing with Manchester Choral Society. She fervently hopes that Chicago will be staged as a no-dance-required, nun-infested production so she can audition for that as well. Come on, you know that would be entertaining!

Karen Thomas (Nun/Festival Contestant) has been singing (on key!) since she was 5 years old. Singing is her passion. She has sung in country rock bands and at weddings and currently sings with her church folk group. This is the second time she’s been in the Sound of Music choir; the first was 30 years ago in Waterville, ME. This being her first musical with Actorsingers, she is delighted to be with such a fine group of people.

Sherri Veneman (Nun/Festival Contestant/Party Guest) This is Sherri’s first show with Actorsingers (actually ever). She lives in Nashua with her wonderfully-supportive husband, Steven, and is excited to be part of this legendary musical, even more so with Actorsingers! Thank you to everyone for making the newcomer feel so much like part of this wonderful family.

Gail Ward (Nun/Party Guest) is thrilled to be in this wonderful show, her 8th with AS. Recently, she has also had fun being an “extra” in some movies and making a Lottery commercial. These are a few of MY “favorite things”: Shawn, Em, Rowan, Tim & Bridget. Love you all! Thank you, Joe, for filling my heart & life with music! ILY! And I’m so excited to be sharing your stage debut with you! Break a leg!

Daniel Weiss (Party Guest/Nazi) is happy to return to the stage after starring as Paul Singer in First Church’s production of Moon Over Buffalo. Other prior roles include Prince Charming in Cinderella, and a memorable turn in The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged). He is very proud of the work his father did on the set design, and his talented wife who plays Sister Margaretta.

Katie Weiss (Sister Margareta) was eight when she first got the acting/singing bug. Her first major role was Helena in A Midsummer Night’s Dream at age twelve. Recent roles include: Blanche Ingram in Jane Eyre, Johanna in Sweeney Todd (NHTA Best Supporting Actress Finalist), Nehebka in Elton John’s Aida, and Roz Hay in the farce Moon Over Buffalo. Special thanks to all who helped with the show! Enjoy!

Joe Vago (Director) Realizing you are lucky is not always obvious. Sure, if you win the lottery you are lucky, right? But when you spend more nights a week away from home than at home, and still can come home to a loving wife who takes care of your 3 very young boys while you are away for 12+ weeks - well let’s just say Joe realizes he is a VERY lucky man. He hopes you enjoy his 2nd effort at directing. Joe would like to dedicate his efforts on this production to the memory of his mother Vivian J. Vago. Through their annual viewing of The Sound of Music she taught him to be proud of his emotions and to be unafraid of showing love.

Jared Holland (Music Director) It was November of 1981 when Jed first worked in our orchestra pit (as pianist for Gypsy). Three decades, fifty shows, countless good friends and one good wife later, he says he still loves this group. Jed thanks all who have supported Actorsingers: it takes quite a village to raise each “child” as we do twice a year. In memory of Actorsingers past, with love to M, A, R, M, M, C.

Martha Daniels Holland (Choreographer) When AS presented SOM in 1997, Martha auditioned 2 days prior to the birth of her first child. He accompanied her at all the rehearsals. Now, 14 years later, her son Andrew is wallzing in this show. She’s so proud of him as well as her other 4 children. She always looks forward to working with her husband Jed whom she met at AS. Much love to Jed, their children, Mom, Deb and Sis! Enjoy!

Charles Emmons (Producer) has participated in numerous local theater productions and with many local and regional groups as performer, working backstage, or serving on boards. He is a former Actorsingers’ President and life member. This production has been a challenge and a lot of fun. He wants to thank Director Joe Vago and the rest of the production staff and cast for their super effort and for making this an enjoyable experience.

Dennis Schneider (Technical Director/Set Design/Lighting Design) Dennis is proud to have been a part of our Tech Team for over 26 years - this is his 52nd Actorsingers’ main stage production. Dennis is a 6-time recipient of New Hampshire Theater Awards for lighting and set design. His work was most recently seen in our productions of Beauty and the Beast, Cats, 42nd Street, Jesus Christ Superstar, and Ragtime. Dennis credits (blames!?) his wife Kerry for his involvement in theater tech.

Steven Harper (Stage Manager) is working on his 10th Actorsingers show. Steve holds a BA in Directing from California State University, Fullerton. During his professional theatre career, he worked at the Mark Taper Forum in Los Angeles, the Utah Shakespearean Festival, the American Repertory Theater, the Oregon Opera, the Crystal Cathedral, and the Dallas Theater Center. He has worked with numerous NH community theaters and is the proud father of beautiful and talented twin girls.

Liz Moore (Assistant Stage Manager) is thrilled to be working on her 2nd Actorsingers show, and so glad to have gotten to work with the incredibly talented cast & crew for TSoM! As the head of the drama program at ConVal High School, Liz relishes the opportunity to do theatre work with as many adults as possible! Thanks to Joe, Martha, Jed & Steve! Love to Brian for his constant laughter, support, and inspiration!
Don Smith-Weiss (Set Designer) has worked as an actor, director, and/or set designer for forty-odd years (some very odd). He designed this same show for the Palace in 1991. He is a web cartoonist in real life; in his theater life, favorite sets include M. Butterfly, And Then There Were None, Rocky Horror, Romeo and Juliet, and Fiddler. He thanks his wife Brenda for her never-ending support and honest critiques.

Raelene Liljeberg (Costume Designer) joined Actorsingers in 1968 & has worked on every main stage production since joining. She’s a Life Member, Penny Award recipient, and has served on the Board several times over the years. This is Raelene’s 3rd SOM involvement. She looks forward to working with Cherie Prior on many future productions. A big thank you to a great committee that she can always count on for support. Enjoy the show!

Cherie Prior (Costumer) is so excited to be costuming her first mainstage show with Actorsingers. She has assisted on previous shows such as Aida and Guys and Dolls and she costumed the Jr. Actorsingers show in the spring, Anne of Green Gables. She would like to thank her family for their love and support and Raelene for this opportunity.

Rick Brooks (Lighting Designer) Rick first started working with Actorsingers in 2002. Since then, he has worked on numerous projects with many different theatre companies. Rick won the NHTA for his lighting design in StageCoach’s production of Sweeney Todd. Rick would like to thank Dennis Schneider, John McAllister, Craig Brennan, and the Ritrovato family for helping him to learn everything he knows about theatre!

Michael D. O’Keefe (Sound Design) In his 11th year with AS, Mike has been a part of the technical crew for all of the main stage shows and many of the junior and teen shows during that time. Most often, you will find him behind the sound board. Mike also lends his technical skills to the Hudson middle and high school drama groups.

Gretchen Gray (Properties/Set Dressing) Gretchen has been involved as properties manager for oodles and oodles of shows with Actorsingers, StageCoach Productions, Peacock Players, and others. Her basement is filled with an odd assortment of props and set pieces and trips to thrift shops and recycling centers are part of her regular routine.

Jack Trommer (Properties/Set Dressing) Jack would like to thank Actorsingers and the cast & crew for their kind hospitality and support in this production. This is his eleventh season and 26th show of living in the Dark (backstage), hoping to be “discovered.” He hopes you will thoroughly enjoy the songs, magnificent music, and performances in The Sound of Music. To the cast & crew, “Break a leg, Everybody!”
